

TSHWANE SOUTH COLLEGE

Pottery classes 2014.

Class fees for 2014: R600.00 per month, payable in advance. Tuition comprises 4 classes of 3 hours per month. Please remember that class fees are payable in advance during the first week of the month. Monthly payments must include the previous month's material costs.

Dates and time table:

Wednesday: Morning 9h00 to 12h00, evening 18h00 to 21h00, commencing February 5.

Material cost will be R240.00 per 10kg bag. Porcelain and paper clay: R280 per 10 kg. As usual this still include the costs of firing and glazing.

New students:

This is an enrichment program, which means we do not follow a set curriculum. Any interested person is welcome to join us, even if you have no previous experience. We limit the number of students per class to 12, which means that a wheel is available for every student.

Bring along the following items for lessons:

- * A towel.
- * Plastic (refuse bags) to cover your pots.
- * Containers: for water and the storage of clay to be recycled.
- * A file for general information and a notebook for your personal records.
- * Old toothbrush.
- * Toolbox (can be any suitable container).
- * Sponges.
- * Old kitchen knife.

NB: We only fire clay available and bought at the college. You will need some tools. These you have to buy either at suppliers or at the College.

Students are requested to pay tea money of R90.00 (per semester) as soon as possible after registration.
