	1 067 280	1 067 280

Take the following adjustments into account:

A debtor who owed R580 was declared insolvent. His estate paid 35% of his debt, and this has been correctly recorded. The remaining balance must be written off as a bad debt.

The rent increased by R200 on 1 December 2015. The tenant has paid the rent until the end of March 2016.

Depreciation on equipment of R12 406 must be taken into account.

During a burglary at the shop, stock costing R24 000 was stolen. The insurance company has agreed to pay out an amount of R18 000, but this has not yet been received.

The physical count at 29 February 2016 revealed the following on hand:

Trading stock	R45 210
Stationery	R620

The loan from Corrie is reduced by R5 000 on 31 July of each year.

The partnership agreement made provision for the following:

Kayt is entitled to an annual salary allowance of R90 000.

Corrie receives a monthly salary of R6 000 per month.

Interest on capital is calculated at 8% per annum on capital balances.

Interest on current accounts will be levied at 7,5% per annum.

The remaining profit or loss is distributed in the ratio 2:1 between Kayt and Corrie.

REQUIRED

- 1.1. Complete the Income and Appropriation Statement for the year ended 29 February 2016. (33)
  - 1.2. Prepare the note to the Balance Sheet for the current accounts of the partners. (17)

Creditors control		42 900
Provision for bad debts		1 410
Bank	15 300
	637 310	637 310

A new vehicle was bought on credit for R180 000 on 1 October 2015. Mr Nkomo also paid to have a sound system installed costing R10 000. Vehicles are depreciated by 15% per annum on cost.

A physical count on 29 February 2016 revealed the following on hand:

Trading stock R200 300
Stationery R380

Debtors outstanding balance is R71 000. The provision for bad debts is to be increased by R2 140.

A supplier has overpaid commission to Prime Stores, R460. This will be offset against future commission.

Rent income for February 2016, R4 600 is still owed.

The insurance account had a total of R21 750. Included in this, is an amount of R3 750 paid on an annual insurance contract on 1 November 2015.

The loan was enlarged by R20 000 on 1 December 2015.

The interest on the loan for February 2016 has not been paid yet.

All cash received was banked, except for R500 per month that Mr Nkomo took for personal use.

The February bank statement showed a credit balance of R76 300. Cheque number 482 for R2 900 (dated 17 March 2016) issued to a creditor, was still outstanding on the bank statement.

The balance of the creditors control account amounts to R49 900.
